

Waterside stunner puts the spotlight on sought-after Sorrento

An upmarket Sorrento residence which opens as BoysTown Lotteries new prize home today is set to shine the spotlight on Sorrento in coming weeks.

Thousands are expected to view the prize home at 18 Waterview Crescent, Sorrento, either in person or online while it is open for public inspection between 1 October 2008 and 12 November 2008.

The $1.17 million prize package, which includes Furniture and Electrical valued at $60,704, Gold Bullion valued at $5,000 and $3,000 Qantas Travel, will be drawn on 14 November 2008.

The contemporary prize home's design is set to attract attention as it was planned to maximise the Gold Coast's casual lifestyle with poolside easy living and entertaining areas.

Three bedrooms, three bathrooms, a family retreat, media room and study also mean there's ample room for every member of the family.

The two-storey residence has been finished with the latest inclusions in streamlined contemporary style with its neutral palette refreshingly complemented with red decorative accents.

Interest in the spacious home, which is located just metres from the beautiful Nerang River, is expected to be boosted by the fact just 310,000 lottery tickets will be available, making this one of Australia's most competitive lottery prize packages.

BoysTown Lotteries is providing an alternative prize option as part of this lottery which means the lucky winner will have the choice of this prestigious Sorrento residence or a contemporary terrace home in Rozelle, Sydney, which is accompanied by Furniture and Electrical valued at $58,762, Gold Bullion valued at $75,000 and $5,000 Qantas Travel.

Funds raised by the lottery will allow BoysTown to provide a fresh start in 2008 for children, young people and families through its various community service programs including Kids Helpline and Parentline telephone counseling services.
